Coventry University
London
Campus Officer
2025/26

Role description:

This role is responsible for gathering the views of students at Coventry University London and representing them to the university. They act as the primary spokesperson for all students at their campus, at every level with the university, Students' Union, and wider community to ensure that everyone is represented and has the opportunity to shape their university experience. The Coventry University London Campus Officer will also contribute to the development of a student community at their campus through representation, campaigns, and events.

The role is self-directed in a number of areas and will require individuals who are self-motivated starters to be successful. This will mostly be through representing students at the campus, campaigning on specific issues, running activities or events and talking to students to gather feedback. It is a unique and valuable experience that requires commitment and drive. Beyond a few core meetings you must attend, you get to decide how to focus your time as an Officer representing students and completing your manifesto.

An ideal candidate will be a self-starter, driven and passionate about creating change for students and representing the views of students at their campus. This includes building relationships and managing stakeholders to be as effective as possible. This role is only open to students studying at the campus they will represent: Coventry University London.
